PORTUGUESE ANNEX TITLE FOR THE SECOND HALF WHEN STARS LOSE

Oahu Senior League.
Final Standing, Second Series.

P. A. C.	P. W. L.	Pct.
Stars	8 6 2	.750
J. A. C.	8 5 3	.625
Asahi	8 3 5	.375
Hawaii	8 2 6	.250

The unexpected happened at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon, and as the result, the Portuguese Athletic Club wins the second half of the Oahu Senior League series, and will meet the J. A. C.'s in the pennant series. This came about by the defeat of the Stars at the hands of the Hawaiians with the win of the Portuguese over the Asahis.

Only half the general dope on yesterday's games went right. It was generally conceded that the Portuguese, who have been coming with a rush all the latter part of the season, would take the measure of the Asahis, but very few figured the tail-ending Hawaiians to beat the Stars, with big Barney Joy serving 'em up from the hill. But that's just what happened, and now there need be no three-cornered series for the championship. The Portuguese and Stars were tied for first place when they went into yesterday's game, and if either lost and the other won, it was all over but the shouting.

Second Game Scraggy.
The second game was a scrappy one that held the interest throughout. Poor work on the bases at a critical moment turned the tide, and took victory away from the Stars at a time when a tie score was certain and a winning margin probable. No team can win when the runners anchor themselves to the sack and then take in the scenery to the exclusion of the game.

In the ninth the score stood 5 to 1 in favor of the Hawaiians, who had secured this lead by one in the second, three in the sixth and one in the seventh. The Stars had started the lead by driving two men over in the initial frame, but had been blanked up to the eighth, when they got their batting clothes on and made three hits good for a brace of tallies. This encouraged them to go on for the last chance to pull the game out of the fire.

"Scotty" Schuman, the hard-worked backstop of the Stars walked up to the plate and laced a clean single. This seemed to rattle Bill Williams, who gave Fernandez a free ride. Hoyle Sumner singled toward third, forcing Schuman. Then came the hit that should have ended the game. It came off Hughes bat, and looked certain to clear the fence and bring all three men across. When it was almost at the Primo sign it was apparent that there was no chance of its being caught and that it was a case of either over or smash bang into the boards. Fernandez got to third and anchored there, instead of trying to come in while McIntyre was retrieving the ball sending it back to the infield. This was suicidal delay, for Sumner, thinking that Fernandez would keep right on, ran him off the bag while Hughes was put out at first. With two gone, a man on third and one on second, and Lal Tin at the bat, it still looked hopeful for Joy's crew, although the effect of the lost opportunity was depressing to the players. Lal Tin put up an easy pop to Williams and the championship was lost.

Barney Joy was sent to the bench by Umpire Bushnell in the seventh, for disputing decisions. Vernon Ayau of the Hawaiians was also called hard for rough work at second, and altogether the game was keen from the start to finish. Kibbey went in to finish the game when Barney retired, and held his opponents hitless.

Easy For Portuguese.
The P. A. C.-Asahi game was so one-sided that by the third inning it was all over but the shouting. The only thing that saved the Japanese players from the whitewash brush was a bombardment of five hits in the eighth inning, which netted four runs. Bushnell was the victim of the slaughter, but the game was so safely put away by that time that he didn't let the slugfest worry him.

B COMPANY LEADS KAM

There was a competition drill between the experts of the different companies of the Kamehameha Cadet Battalion yesterday afternoon held on the school grounds before a large gathering of interested spectators. In the manual of arms, B company won first and second places, while A company took third through A. Mitchell, F. Ellis won first place. Two points go to B company and one to A company.

The inter-company series is drawing to a close and at the present time Company B is heading the list with 27 points. A second with 21 and C third with 18 points.
Soccer Series.
The teams are ending up the soccer series. B company is also in the lead in the series, winning four games straight. Last Saturday C company won to A company in a soccer game, 1-0. The goal was made in the last minute of play by J. McKinney, the star of his team.

St. Louis Will Call On Day Scholar For Soccer Talent

The St. Louis boys are forming a very speedy soccer team this year. Broder Elmer, who is coming to Honolulu, expects to show other schools a thing or two out of the game during the coming season, and if they keep up the work they have been doing in practice, he is no doubt but that they will.

The team has been handpicked to a certain extent this year, losing several of last year's best players, among them was Richard Jan, the star center halfback of last year's team. He was one of the best players the team had possessed for several years, and his absence this year has left quite a hole. Broder Elmer is doing his best to secure somebody to fill Swan's place, but so far he has been unsuccessful. He has gone through all the regular studs but he hasn't found what he was searching for. He has shown up with the position, but are not quite up to Swan's standard.

Broder Elmer still has hope of getting what he wants and his hopes on the day scholars, a harder to get fellows from among the day scholars for they are only required to be on the grounds for school work and after that they can leave for home or town. The regular students are on the grounds all times and so are in a position to appeal to by the coach and therefore the teams are composed mostly of the regulars, or rather have been heretofore. This year, however, Broder Elmer intends to try and get little material from the day scholars to fill up the vacancies in the teams. There is some very promising looking material among them, and the only trouble he expects in getting them to turn out is in being able to arouse their school spirit. This should not be difficult, as all the boys seem to possess quite an abundance of that essential.

Old Timers Out.
The boys who played on the St. Louis Soccer team last year and are trying for positions on the team again this year are:

Foster Robinson, captain; Manuel Lopez, Chinito, Moriama, Honolulu, Akau, Marcel and Hore. They are all good players and form the main part of the team this year. It has not been definitely announced that they will be on the first team this year but it is safe in supposing that they will be. Broder Elmer said that no names would be announced for a month yet.

"There is no need of announcing the names of the players for at least a month. Of course I have a good idea who will play on the team and the position they will hold but a month of practice will do wonders and it might be necessary to make changes during that time."

"Our schedule does not begin until a short time before Christmas and only two games, both with Kamehameha, are played before then, so we still have considerable time for practice and if we don't succeed in putting out a winning team, I shall be much disappointed."

MAGNATES ALSO HAVE TROUBLES

While the players, through the medium of Dave Fultz, are getting the griddle for the club owners' ass, reciting their many grievances against the drawers of contracts, just as well as call attention to one big handicap under which the club owner labors.

At all times the players in his power not only to nullify his contract with a club owner, but can also deprive him of a large fortune as set just as surely as if he begged the dough out of a strong U.

Death, accident, illness, whim, better opportunity or one of a multitude of reasons induce a baseball star to quit a team after he has purchased for, say, $100,000. The day after he reports to his owner if he chooses to quit the team the purchasing magnate is left with a "cut" and these beans are spilled with no hope of recovery.

Many instances of this have occurred to blight the life of magnates even more than they injured their pocketbooks. Bably the three most notable examples in history are those of Amosbie, Mike Doulin and Fielder Jones.

For a while and a mer of $200,000 fine Rusie quit cold on the New York club. At the time he was esteemed a greater pitcher than Walter Johnson today. No doubt the club's owners, had they imagined for a moment that Rusie was in a permanent Sulk, would have never let the matter drift as far as they did.

Mike Doulin quit the Giants when his presence on the club practically meant the championship to McGraw. He retired because of a $20,000 a year difference over salary. His retirement cost the New York club at a low estimate $50,000.

Fielder Jones quit at the zenith of his career and his ability as a player and leader. His retirement put Comiskey's club on the tobbogan, besides taking a big wind of kale from the Old Roman's stock book.

Death has cost team owners some of their assets before they had a chance to use them at all. A case was Alan Storke, whom the Cardinals traded to Cincinnati. He died before donning a Red uniform.

Whims or alleged business reasons sometimes touch the club owner in his purse, as was the case with the great pitcher Orval Overall, who decided between seasons that he was all

CARPENTIER EXPECTED IN NOVEMBER

If the plans of M. Francis Deschamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, fistic idol of France, do not go astray, Georges will exhibit his paces before a New York club early in November.

There is a good deal of curiosity extant on this side of the water regarding Carpentier's prowess. He is beyond doubt the most sensational figure in glove-dom produced by his country since Frenchmen took up the rugged sport of fisticuff, having fought his way to the top of the heap with but one defeat registered against him.

Carpentier is only eighteen years of age and is said to be putting on weight rapidly, so much so that in the course of a few months it is probable that he will be compelled to seek opponents in the heavy division.

ALL-CHINESE ARE AFTER PENNANT WINNERS

In a game that was replete with brilliant fielding, and also some very unbrilliant errors, the All-Chinese took the J. A. Cs down the line at Athletic Park Saturday to the tune of 5 to 3. It was a good game to watch, and the ease with which the Chinese players handled themselves and the ball was one of the real features of the contest. Certainly the long mainland tour made real ball players out of Captain Akana's men. Not only do they get results when fielding infield hits, but they get them with the fewest possible motions and with the ease and grace of big leaguers. Balls seem to hop into their gloves at just the right moment, instead of being knocked down with clumsy stabs, and then fielded, as is too often the case with Oahu league games.

Although they didn't know it at the time, the Japanese lost the game in the second inning, when they filled the sacks with no one gone, and then proceeded to go out in one-two-three order, had this been a one-two-three game when the players were thoroughly warmed to their work, and when the importance of sending a run over was fully realized, the chances are that the team would have made better use of its opportunity, and forced at least one man across the rubber.

The game was a close affair all the way, with the Chinese always just a jump ahead of their opponents, however. Some brilliant catches in the outfield were the star plays, while there was just enough miffing in the infield to give the fans a chance to pan the players. Luck Lee and Foster Robinson pitched good games for the winners and losers respectively. The former was a four for six safeties, while the St. Louis collegian had seven against his record.

The Chinese are now laying for the winners of the Oahu league pennant for a series.

through and quit cold. The magnate makes big money, but he also has big losses and pays heavy expenses. If he fails to land a winner he generally gravitates around the mere existence stage.

It's one point the players should think on when they draft their bill of rights.

BRILLIANT LINE PLUNGING AND PUNTING GIVES PUNAHOU VICTORY

'Townies' Go Down to 13-to-0 Defeat at Hands of Oahu Collegians — Game Fast and Clean-Played Throughout with No Serious Accidents to Mar the Sport — Old-Time Players Still Show Class

It was a great game and a record crowd.

With both teams playing a consistent and brilliant game throughout the husky Townies went down to defeat before the fast Punahou eleven to the tune of thirteen to nothing on Alexander Field Saturday afternoon. In their endeavor to follow the example of their second team, the Puns fought every inch of the ground, and twice succeeded in placing the leather back of the goal post.

The direct cause of the Puns taking the game was the brilliant work of the backfield, as time and again "Sleepy" Baldwin and Coney were sent through the tackle or around the end for big gains, and when it came to booting the leather, fullback Hitchcock was there with the goods. Credit is also due to the Puns' line for the manner in which they opened holes in the Town line, Renton and Liu did a lot of good tackling.

For the Town Team, Marcellino Rosa, C. Hoogs, Aldrich and Paty were easily the stars, in fact all the players showed that they had not lost all of their old-time form. Hoogs' ability of booting the pigskin probably kept the Puns from scoring more than they did.

The forward pass was used several times during the game by both teams, in some cases proving to be a good ground-gainer. Punting was also resorted to a large extent.

Both teams had a crowd of supporters on the field. The Pun enthusiasts were there in flocks and yell master Timberlake and his assistants kept the noise going every minute.

Game by Quarters.
The game started at three-fifteen and the quarters consisted of fifteen minutes each, with a minute rest between.

MOVE TO CHANGE WATER POLO RULES

NEW YORK.—The effort being made by advocates of English or soccer water polo to have the sport of their choice adopted by the Amateur Athletic union in place of the American game has given rise to the rumor that several eastern colleges were ready to second the motion and would attempt to introduce the change in the tournaments of the Intercollegiate Swimming association.

Such is hardly the case. In fact, a canvass of the various universities holding membership in the league has shown that with one or two exceptions the college swimmers are opposed to interference with the style of play now obtaining, which has proved satisfactory, and that any plan to alter the present rules will be voted down by a sweeping majority. Nor can this be wondered at, for the game has become popular with both players and public and managers contend that they cannot draw a crowd for the meets unless a water polo match is on the program.

The trouble experienced in former years, owing to frequent disputes and rough work, has been largely eliminated, thanks to the appointment of competent referees, and for a couple of seasons there has been nothing to mar the fine exhibitions of skill and good watermanship in college games. The league authorities are consequently most unwilling to see any change take place.

It is probable, however, that soccer will find many followers among those college swimmers who are either unfit physically for the hand-to-hand encounters unavoidable in American water polo or merely unwilling to enter so strenuous a contest, and as the rapid increase of interest in natation is furnishing plenty of material there is a chance that Pennsylvania and Princeton and possibly Columbia and City college will have both Rugby and soccer teams in the water.

Kistler, the Pennsylvania coach, is an expert at the English game and has already in the past turned out players who have held their own against the best club sevens, while Frank Sullivan of Princeton says he will welcome the opportunity of initiating his pupils in a pastime that will serve to develop speed and endurance, particularly among those who do not fancy the American game.

It is likely, therefore, that soccer will be much in evidence during the coming winter. The New York Athletic club and the City Athletic club have for some time played the game spasmodically, but lack of opposing teams has precluded the possibility of active competition. With three or four of the leading colleges added to the field and a championship title at stake, there should be opportunity and inducement to develop soccer teams.

ween and fifteen minutes between the halves. Following is the game by quarters:

First Quarter.

The Puns kicked to the Town Team and Marcellino received the ball on the twenty-yard line, advancing it seventeen yards before he was tackled. On the first down Aldrich was sent through for a three-yard gain and the Puns were penalized three yards. On the next two downs Rosa went through making two gains of four and three yards. The Townies failed to make their yardage and the ball went over. On the first down for the Puns, Paty got through and carried Coney back for a loss of two yards. Schuman then took his turn and the ball went through for a gain of seven yards and Hitchcock advanced it a yard more on the next down. The Puns then tried a pass, but it was uncompleted and the ball went down to the same place. On the next down no gain was made, and the ball went over. On the first down Rosa rushed the oval through for five yards, and Grace for seven on the second. A pass was then made by the Townies and was recovered by the Puns. Hitchcock went through left tackle but was pushed back for no gain. Hitchcock then punted and the ball was received by Rosa on the Town's thirty-five-yard line. He was tackled as he caught the ball and no gain was made. On the first down Rosa hugged the leather for seven yards. The Puns were penalized five yards for playing offside, and on the next down, Grace went through center for a gain of three yards. Aldrich then took a hand and rushed the ball a yard further. Again Grace went through center, this time making three yards. Hoogs then dropped back for a place-kick but missed. The Puns kicked out to the Townies from their fifteen yard line and the ball was received by Markham on a fumble by Moore. The Puns then rushed the ball through for small gains of two and four yards and then Coney took it and made two yards more. Hitchcock then attempted a run but was tackled by Moore and no gain was made. The Puns then punted and the ball was received by Marcellino on the Town's eleven-yard line, who made a gain of five yards before he was tackled by Imman. On the first down Rosa went through left guard for a gain of six yards. A fumble on the part of the Townies was recovered by Grace, and no gain was made. Cyril Hoogs then tried a boot at the leather and the ball was received by Schuman who failed to advance it. H. Baldwin then started out with a gain of seven yards and on the second down Coney followed suit with a gain of four yards through right tackle, and on the third went through the other side of the line for three yards more. Seeing that Coney was doing well, Schuman called on him again and he went through right tackle for a gain of nine yards and on the second down made ten yards more. Then "Sleepy" Baldwin got into action again and carried the ball for three yards and followed it up with a gain of seventeen yards on the next down. The whistle blew and the quarter ended with no score.

Second Quarter.

The quarter started with the Puns on the Town's ten-yard line and with four downs in which to make a touchdown. Schuman called Coney to carry the ball, but the best he could
